Conversation Mastery

PHYSICIANS

Trust is built, or lost, in the few minutes after a diagnosis.
Clinical communication is not improvised. It is practiced.

BETTER CONVERSATIONS. MEASURABLE PROGRESS.

Your department. Your standards. Your real conversations.

Virtual standardized patients · Personalized feedback · Progress you can track

READY BEFORE THE REAL ONE

Help residents rehearse serious news and prognosis questions with patients and families who react with emotion, before the real ones.

ONE TEAM, ONE APPROACH

Scenarios built from your cases, with rubrics aligned with SPIKES. Feedback covers clinical reasoning, disclosure, and consults.

EVERY PATIENT, THEIR LANGUAGE

Practice in 40+ languages, at any time, without booking standardized patients or sim-center slots.

START WITH YOUR CLINICAL CASES

Choose one department. Share 10 real cases or adverse events. Our team builds the scenarios with yours, with no technical setup.
